Re: Tasset Group Inc. v. Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation as receiver for Signature Bank and Signature Bridge Bank
C.A. No. 1:23-cv-11163 (JLR)

Dear Judge Rochon:

We represent Defendant Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in its capacities as the Receivers for Signature Bank and Signature Bridge Bank (“FDIC-Receiver”) in the above referenced matter. An Initial Conference is currently scheduled for April 9, 2024, before Your Honor. We write to respectfully request an adjournment of this Initial Conference. Although the complaint was filed on December 22, 2023, the FDIC-Receiver was not served with the complaint until March 14, 2024. As a result, the FDIC-Receiver’s response to the complaint is currently due on May 16, 2024, more than a month after the scheduled conference date.¹ In addition, this Firm was recently retained by the FDIC-Receiver and we request additional time to adequately review Plaintiff’s claims and to prepare for the conference.

Prior to submitting this request, our office contacted Sheila Baynes, Attorney for Plaintiff, and she consented to this adjournment. This is the first request for adjournment that the FDIC-Receiver has made. The parties are available on the following dates to re-schedule the Initial Conference: May 29, May 30, and June 4, 2024.

Should the Court have any questions or require additional information, please contact the ¹ Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(a)(2), the FDIC-Receiver has sixty days to respond to the complaint.
